PROJECT

Data Analytics On Fantasy Premier League

1. This is the image of the first dashboard, that shows the values of different parameters on choosing the name of the player. This dashboard will help FPL players to get all the basic information about the player.

2. The second dashboard will help FPL players to compare two different players simultaneously on different parameters such as bonus points that the player has received, The number of goals, ict value, selection numbers.